NEIGHBOR

Blair Crimmins to Headline Spring Fling Lineup

Blair Crimmins and the Hookers, an Atlanta-based band fronted by Kirkwood resident Blair Crimmins, is set to play at the 2018 Kirkwood Spring Fling & Tour of Homes on Saturday, May 19. The jazz, Dixieland, and ragtime band has opened for acts such as Mumford & Sons and Preservation Hall Jazz Band, and event organizers are thrilled to add the group to the Spring Fling musical lineup.

This won't be the band's first appearance at the event. It will, however, be the first time Blair plays at Spring Fling as a Kirkwood resident. He and his wife, radio personality Davi Crimmins of Q-100's "The Bert Show," moved to the neighborhood three years ago from nearby Cabbagetown.

"Kirkwood has become our home, and we love living here," Blair says. "You get the peace and quiet of living outside of town, but with all the amazing amenities of living in the big city right around the corner.

"I'm so excited to play for my 'home crowd' at this year's Spring Fling," he continues. "Since we moved to Kirkwood I've wanted to play at the event again, but with touring it's been difficult to get the schedule right. This year I knew I could get it done, so I reached out to the festival organizers directly."

Blair has been musically inclined as far back as he can remember. At only eight years old, he saved up enough money to buy his first real guitar. Inspired by famous jazz musicians like Jelly Roll Morton and Louis Armstrong, as well as rock musicians like Bob Dylan, David Bowie and The Clash, today Blair has created a one-of-a-kind sound that has been recognized throughout the country – a sound that event organizers are pleased to showcase at Spring Fling.

"We're thrilled to have Blair and his

Volunteers (Like You?) Make Spring Fling Possible

As the neighborhood's premier fundraiser, it's important the Spring Fling goes off without a hitch. The event – which includes a 5K race, artists' booths, live music, a children's play area, a barbecue contest, and food trucks – relies 100% on the work of volunteers.

A group of approximately 30 neighborhood residents who make up the Kirkwood Spring Fling committee has held regular planning meetings since January. These dedicated volunteers have devoted a significant amount of time during the months leading up to the Spring Fling to ensure the event is a success.

And there are plenty of opportunities that don't require such a long-term commitment. More than 250 volunteers are needed during the weekend of May 19, with many different types of jobs available.

For a few hours of time, all volunteers receive a commemorative Spring Fling T-shirt, a beer ticket, and the priceless opportunity to meet new neighbors and experience community fun. Some volunteer roles have additional perks as well, such as free tickets to the Tour of Homes for those who assist at locations on the tour.

So check your calendar and consider helping out. You'll have a good time for a good cause.

The 16th Annual Spring Fling and Tour of Homes is Saturday, May 19, at Bessie Branham Park.

Neighborhood Cheers as Resident Runner Completes First Full Marathon

Todd Bowers, who has lived in Kirkwood since 2009, recently completed the Publix Georgia Marathon, his first-ever 26.2-mile race. He credits the Kirkwood neighborhood with helping ignite his passion for running, which began when he joined Kirkwood Runners and Walkers, a group that meets at the local library twice each week to walk and run through the neighborhood.

Todd soon began running outside the designated group runs, and it wasn't long before he was running daily. One of his first races was the Kirkwood Spring Fling 5K in 2015. After he had a few 5K races under his belt, he began to think about participating in longer runs.

Last year, Todd completed the Publix Georgia Half Marathon with fellow Kirkwood resident David Kipp, who completed the full marathon. Todd enjoyed that race so much that he immediately registered for the 2018 full marathon.

His training began in October 2017, with a goal of completing the marathon in less than four hours. He gradually increased both the lengths of his runs and his endurance. His hard work paid off when he completed the Publix marathon on March 18 with a time of 3:54.

Todd credits his support group with helping him achieve his goal, particularly his wife Kathy Thompson. As the marathon runners passed through Kirkwood, a crowd of neighbors – armed with signs and some even in costume – joined Kathy in cheering his progress.

"I really felt a jolt of inspiration and pride as I passed my neighborhood cheering section," he says.

Now that he has completed the marathon, Todd is devoting his energy to helping organize the 2018 Kirkwood Spring Fling 5K as a volunteer.

"This neighborhood and this race really started it all for me," he says. "I want as many people as possible to have that same opportunity."

Spring Fling 5K

The annual Kirkwood Spring Fling 5K is now an official qualifying event for the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Peachtree Road Race, the nation's largest 10K, held annually on July 4.

Organizers encourage participants to register for the race soon, as its designation as a Peachtree qualifier may impact the number of people wanting to participate.

The route begins at the Kirkwood library on Hosea Williams Drive and takes participants through tree-lined boulevards dotted with historic homes, then back to downtown Kirkwood for the finish line.

Runners receive a commemorative race T-shirt. (Those 21 and older also receive a ticket for a beer or sangria at the Kirkwood Spring Fling festival that day.) Post-race yoga at Besse Branham Park will be provided by Indigo Yoga Studio in Kirkwood.
