COMMITMENT TO QUALITY CONSTRUCTION

In our residential construction operation, Stryant focuses on "restoration" in addition to renovation, concentrating on the historical character and context of each home and neighborhood. With these values in mind, we felt like we were the perfect fit to sponsor our neighborhood's Spring Fling Tour of Homes.

While outfitting homes with modern conveniences and energy-efficient upgrades, we strive to restore and re-purpose existing architectural elements in each project where possible. Check out our work on our website or on Houzz.com or give us a call at

Rowdy & Proud 'pre-game' supports neighborhood

Spring Fling sponsor Atlanta United is hosting a happy hour on Wednesday before the festival at The Pullman. Representatives will be handing out garden flags to all Kirkwood residents, and the first 50 people will also get a free garden flag pole.

Three Taverns Craft Brewery has donated a keg of their Rowdy & Proud IPA to the event, so your purchase of this beer will benefit Kirkwood Neighbors' Organization: $3 pints with food, $5 for stand-alone pours.

Spring Fling fundraising helps neighbor-driven initiatives like Kirkwood Cares and community park improvements — such as improving the amphitheater area in Coan Park with new instruments and creating a kid-friendly musical garden behind the tennis courts. None of this will interfere with the proposed splash pad area or development. Support the Coan Music Park by purchasing Kirkwood "K" legacy stones at Spring Fling to be installed in the garden.

Kirkwood Ale debuts at beverage tents

In partnership with Second Self Beer Company, for the first time ever, we have our very own Spring Fling beer! Kirkwood resident Jason Santamaria, president and beer architect of Second Self, collaborated with the Spring Fling planning committee to create this unique brew.

You can enjoy tasty fare from local food trucks and restaurants with your Kirkwood Ale, as well as other local craft beers and homemade sangria.
